MR. GROVER THE MAN

Nominated for Office of Legislature by the Third District Republican.

IT WAS A WALK-OVER FOR HIM

He Had Twenty-Four Votes Against Sixteen for Mr. Holgate and Five for Mr. Rep.—The Nominee Is a Resident of Moosic—Resolutions Adopted by the Convention—The Delegates in Attendance.

The Third legislative district Republican convention was held in the arbitration room of the court house yesterday afternoon, and P. J. Grover, of Moosic, placed in nomination as the party's candidate for the legislature.

Chairman James E. Watkins called the convention to order at 2:30 o'clock. The call was read by Secretary Charles Northrup and then the delegates presented their credentials, after which the roll was called by the secretary. The following delegates answered to their names:

Butler—C. F. Andrews, G. G. Gibbs, Covington—Lewis Jones, Glenburn—C. A. Sherman, Goodhope—J. R. Gardner, Greenwood—Frank Knapp, La Plume—Horace Samson, Madison—David Allen, George Brown, Newton—H. S. Beaman, North Abington—C. J. Thomas, H. V. Decker, J. E. Deppe, H. B. Kless, Ransom—Abram Stine, Scott—H. B. Mead, Avery White, South Abington—J. D. Aylesworth, Silas Griffin, J. M. Conner, Jr., Spring Brook—William Griffiths, Waverly—D. L. Dyer.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS. The chair appointed as committee on resolutions, J. D. Aylesworth, Thomas W. Jones, of Lackawanna, and J. D. Aylesworth. The committee retired and later reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted as the sense of the convention:

We, the Republicans of the Third Legislative district, in convention, renew our allegiance to the great principles formulated by the fathers of the party at its birth and incorporated in the platform adopted at the first state convention.

We denounce the selfish interference of the Democratic party with the protective tariff, which has built up the industries of our country, furnished employment to the millions of our laboring men, and brought about the unparalleled prosperity which marked the years succeeding the war of the rebellion as the golden era in the history of our nation and call attention to the disasters which are now threatening our country and paralyzing its powers, resulting from the abortive efforts of the party in power to force a return to the un-American English idea of free trade.

We point with pride to the splendid achievements of the grand old Republican party throughout its entire history, its uncompromising loyalty to the principles of distinctly American principle; its unwavering loyalty to the integrity of the Union of States, one and indivisible; its unfaltering devotion to the welfare of the working classes, and renew our allegiance to its service.

We recognize in the Hon. D. H. Hastings, the man lately named by the Republican party as its standard bearer in the coming state contest, a man of the people, in touch with every heart throbbing of the masses, able, fearless, conscientious, quick to see of sound judgment and rare executive ability.

We heartily endorse the state ticket and trust the candidate who receives the nomination in today's convention will receive the united support of the entire party at the coming election.

The preliminary organization was then made permanent, after which the receiving of nominations was in order.

THE CANDIDATES NAMED. T. H. Evans, of the West district of Lackawanna, placed the name of P. J. Grover, of Moosic, before the convention. H. L. Doty, of Waverly, nominated R. H. Holgate, of La Plume, and T. J. Stewart performed a similar duty for William Rapp, of Old Forge.

But one ballot was necessary to determine a choice. It resulted as follows:

T. H. Grover.....24
R. H. Holgate.....16
Wm. Rapp.....5

Mr. Grover having received a majority of the votes cast, was duly declared nominated, the announcement being received with cheers. The successful candidate was called before the convention. He briefly thanked the delegates for the honor conferred upon him, and said that if their choice should be ratified at the polls, he would endeavor to faithfully represent the interests of his constituents. The convention then adjourned.

HE NEVER CAME BACK. Absconds with a Bicycle Built Only for One.

A very plausible individual absconded yesterday in burrowing the Columbia bicycle agency out of a new model, $135 wheel.

The man entered the establishment early in the day and was shown a handsome Columbia by the manager, E. C. Hand. He found some fault with the handle bars, but said if they were altered he would buy the machine. Later in the day he again visited the salesroom during the manager's absence and readily obtained the clerk's consent to try the wheel. He had been trying it up to a late hour last night; that is, he had not returned to notify Mr. Hand whether he would purchase or not.

The smooth individual is supposed to be the party who registered at the Westminster Friday as H. C. Clark, New York. He appeared to be a traveling man, is about six feet in height and weighs 165 pounds. He has sparse side whiskers on were light striped trousers and a black coat and vest. A diamond ring on the little finger completes the description.

The police were notified of the case and furnished a description of the wheel as follows: Columbia, model 38, extra high frame, No. 699, wooden rims.

AT BEGINNING OF THE MONTH. Delaware and Hudson Company Will Take Possession of New Station.

The new station of the Delaware and Hudson company on Lackawanna avenue is expected to be ready for occupancy on July 1. There is much to be done on the structure, however.

A large force of men is employed in building an immense platform in the rear, which, when completed, will be nearly fifty feet long and thirty feet wide. The underpinning of the platform will be brick. All the plastering is finished and the plumbers and gas-fitters are busy at work.

The bridge street and Vine street depots will be abandoned, who possession is taken of the new building and all of the offices at both places will be removed to the new one.

The suite of office rooms is in the top story and are commodious, comfortable and well lighted.

NON-SUIT WAS REFUSED. Judge McPherson Would Not Grant One in Rheumatism Case.

The case of C. B. Sherwood against August Vockroth and Frederick Vockroth was tried before Judge Archibald yesterday. The plaintiff was represented by Attorney G. H. Soper and the defendants by Attorney A. A. Chase.

Most of the day was consumed in trying the case. The property in dispute is a boiler that was sold on an execution against Gottlieb Kramer, Mr. Soper, attorney for the plaintiff, purchasing it for his clients.

Later the defendants entered a claim to the effect that they had no knowledge of the sale and that they had loaned it to Kramer. The boiler is said to be worth about $325. Up to the time court adjourned, the jury had not agreed upon a verdict.

The trial of the case of Joseph Shoenmaker against the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company was continued before Judge McPherson in court room No. 3. This case is being hotly contested. In the afternoon the defendants moved for a non-suit on the ground that the plaintiff had not shown negligence on the part of the company in not having provided their engines with suitable spark arresters. The motion was not allowed, however, and the defense will proceed with their side of the case this morning.

In court room No. 3 the case of James Kelly against M. T. Keller was heard by Judge Gunster. Colonel F. J. Plathmon represented the plaintiff and Attorney L. A. Amerson and C. S. Woodruff the defendant. The suit was brought to recover $35 for excavating for a cellar, the plaintiff alleging that he worked for Peter Mulligan, but fearing he would not be paid, he was assured by Mr. Keller, for whom the cellar was being dug, that if Mulligan did not pay he (Keller) would see that he was paid. The defense was that the latter denied that he ever employed Kelly or gave him any assurance that he would see him paid. He had settled all claims with Mulligan. The jury returned a verdict in the plaintiff's favor.

GIROFFE-GIROFFA REPEATED. The Mack-Kenney Opera Company's Excellent Production.

The Mack-Kenney Opera Company repeated "Giraffe-Giraffe" at the Frothingham theater last evening before an enthusiastic audience. The production was in some respects smoother than on Monday evening.

The chorus performed its work in excellent style. The singing of Miss Fannie Meyers, Miss Lillian Conner, Sylvia Langlois and Charles Holmes was especially fine. Dan Young increased his hold on popular favor by his imitable comedy work.

"Giraffe-Giraffe" will be repeated at the Frothingham this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and this evening. These will be the last two performances of the charming and tuneful opera. Matinee prices will be 10, 15 and 25 cents.

PROPOSITION TO TUNKHANNOCK. Scrantonians Want to Light Borough with Electricity.

T. Tunkhannock New Age says that W. Boyd and E. R. Simpson, of the Scranton Supply and Machinery company, have made an offer to light the borough of Tunkhannock by electricity, which is by far the cheapest yet submitted to the borough council.

Their offer is to put up as many lights about town as there are oil lamps at present, and keep them burning as much of the time as necessary for $500 per year, the lamps to be 100-candle power incandescents. This is at a yearly cost of from $100 to $150 more than the kerosene lights now used cost.

They offer to sell as much or as little stock to local capitalists as they choose to take, and if at any time after the plant is established, the borough wants to take it off their hands they will sell at a reasonable figure. It is the intention to erect a power house at the outlet of Lake Carey, which will be run by water from the lake. The scheme includes the lighting of the lake and the running of an electric road from Tunkhannock to Factoryville, provided the latter project promises to be a paying investment.

MARRIED OVER AGAIN. Taylor Gossip Cause Trouble for Mr. and Mrs. Albert Russell.

Albert Russell and Emma Millhime, according to their own story, were yesterday united in marriage for the second time. The couple have lived at Taylor as man and wife for some time past, but their conjugal bliss was more or less marred by the busy gossip of the place who circulated reports to the effect that Mr. Russell had never married the woman his wife.

In reply to the accusation, however, the couple assert that they were married in Binghamton about one year ago, but unfortunately had lost their marriage certificate.

For some cause or other they were not able to procure a duplicate of the certificate, and so for the purpose of silencing their traducers the pair came to this city yesterday and procured a license, after which the marriage ceremony was performed by Alderman Fueller, who tied the knot so tight that he feels certain no one will hereafter dispute the right of Mr. and Mrs. Russell to live together as man and wife.

PHILIPS WAS SARCASICAL. Sent His Fine Panster on a Piece of Glass.

Druggist John H. Phelps in paying his fine to Alderman Fitzsimmons for the suit against him for violating the Sabbath law on Sunday, May 27, sent the money passed on a rectangular piece of plate glass 10 by 12 inches. At the top was pasted a new $2 bill and at the bottom was another. In the space between the currency was the inscription:

Reserve Fund for Blue Law Tax. A Bonnet for the School Fops. Yours truly, J. H. PHILIPS.

At the top of the plate in large letters was inscribed, "Our Wacky Donation." Alderman Fitzsimmons exhibited it to Mr. Dony, who smiled good naturedly and offered the alderman $5 for it.

CHURCH PEOPLE MEET

Quarterly Conference of Congregationalists of Lackawanna and Luzerne Counties.

HELD IN FIRST WELSH CHURCH

Conference Opened at 2 O'Clock Yesterday Afternoon by Rev. B. I. Evans—Session Taken Up by the Transaction of Routine Business. Evening Session Conducted in the Welsh Language—The Speakers.

The quarterly meeting of the Congregational churches of Lackawanna and Luzerne counties began yesterday at the First Welsh Congregational church, Market street, Providence. In the afternoon at 2 o'clock the conference was opened by the president, Rev. B. I. Evans. The following representatives were present: J. M. Williams, Nanticoke; Richard George, Wilkes Barre; J. J. Jenkins, Parson; B. J. Evans, Pittston; John P. Griffiths, James M. Thomas and W. Howells, Taylor; D. J. Evans and J. D. Jones, South Main avenue, Richard Thomas and J. Williams, Hyde Park church; D. B. Lewis, Sath Griffiths and Thomas J. Lewis, Providence; John P. Williams, D. Davies, Oliphant; John E. Jones, Pittston; Rev. J. F. Davies, Plainfield; W. J. and Isaac Thomas, Rendham, and El. W. Jones, Old Forge.

The business of the conference was of a purely routine character connected with the church and the meeting. The evening session was held at 7:30, when the services were conducted by the Rev. David Jones, assisted by the Rev. B. I. Evans. The services were conducted in Welsh and the sermons preached by the Rev. Mr. George, of Pittston, and the Rev. J. J. Jenkins, of Parson, were in the same tongue. The first preacher selected his text from Revelation 2, viii-xi, and in the course of his sermon he gave a very exhaustive and interesting review of the history and position of the church in Smyrna, and deduced therefrom several forcible lessons applicable to present day members of the church of Christ.

ONE OF THE DANGERS TO CHURCH. In particular the reverend gentleman declared that one of the greatest dangers to the church was the existence of people within her fold who professed great piety and prominence whilst as a matter of fact their actions were quite in opposition to their profession. They made use of the church of Christ as a cloak to hide their questionable worldly transactions in order to deceive people by their mock sanctity. He appealed to his hearers to guard against such hypocritical members and expel them from their midst.

After the singing of the hymn, "Hymn ave yn gwel yn eger," J. J. Jenkins of Parson gave an interesting discourse on the "Sabbath Day," and based his remarks on the circumstances under which Christ defended the action of his disciples in plucking the ears of corn upon the Sabbath day. He traced the law of keeping the Sabbath from the earliest times thro' the Jewish dispensation to prove his argument that the keeping of the Sabbath had always been a general law. Dealing with the present day arguments for a continental Sabbath he expressed his belief that he could easily prove that a man could accomplish more work in six days than in seven when he had one day's rest from his labor and that a man who was compelled to work from day to day without the interval of rest would soon be found much inferior to the man who kept the Sabbath. The speaker concluded with a forcible argument for the inviolate retention of the Sabbath in its pure and undiluted form.

THE PROCEEDINGS TODAY. The conference will resume today at 10 a. m., when a paper will be read and discussed on "The Influence of the Religious Parliament of Chicago on Christianity." In the afternoon at 2:30 services will be held, when the Rev. M. Davies, of Plainfield; Rev. M. Davis, of Miners, and Rev. D. Jones, of Hyde Park will take part.

At 7 p. m. Isaac Thomas will preach in English. The Revs. Peter Roberts, of Oliphant, and D. P. Jones, of the tabernacle, Hyde Park, will take part, the latter reading a paper on "Evangelical Crisis."

MR. NILAND'S STATEMENT. Pronounces a Story in the Times, Referring to Mr. Boland, a Falsehood.

John Niland, of the Elmira Budget, states that the article in the Times of yesterday in reference to an encounter with William Boland was false. Niland and Boland met in the hall of the Price building and Mr. Boland, he alleges, made three or four attempts to strike Niland in case future articles regarding Boland should appear in the Budget.

Mr. Niland paid no attention to Mr. Boland's remarks, which formed the sole foundation for the Times' article.
